

-----NON-BINDING PROSPECTIVE PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENT-----

[FULL NAME AND TITLE], [NAME OF PRACTICE]
AND CONTRALINE, LLC

This document made as of this [ordinal #] day of [month], [year] shall serve as a non-binding confirmation of the prospective partnership between [Full Name and Title] and Contraline, LLC to which [Full Name and Title], firstly, intends to utilize certain devices and procedures of Contraline, LLC once FDA approval of such devices and procedures is obtained, and secondly, help educate patients as to the details and benefits of intra-vas devices as a form of male contraception.

This Letter of Intent ("LOI") shall confirm the intentions of [Full Name and Title] to utilize the following in [Name of Practice]:

- Echo-V™: an intra-vas device ("IVD") in the form of a long-lasting and non-hormonal polymer gel that is implanted into the vas deferens;
- Vasintomy™: the procedure invented and developed by Contraline, LLC for non-surgically inserting Echo-V using an ultrasound-guided, percutaneous injection;
- Educational material used to inform patients of aforementioned devices and procedures.

This is not a purchase agreement. Either party may terminate this LOI at any time and upon termination, this LOI shall have no force or effect on either party. It is recognized and understood that the devices and procedures are the separate property of Contraline, LLC and are not affected by this agreement and neither party shall have claims or rights in such separate inventions of the other.
